ORDER<sup>1</sup>

The Employer's petition to revoke subpoena duces tecum B-1-PD7JW5 is denied.<sup>2</sup> The subpoena seeks information relevant to the matter under investigation and describes with sufficient particularity the evidence sought, as required by Section 11(1) of the Act and Section 102.31(b) of the Board's Rules and Regulations. Further, the Employer has failed to establish any other legal basis for revoking the subpoena. See generally NLRB v. North Bay Plumbing, Inc., 102 F.3d 1005 (9th Cir. 1996); NLRB v. Carolina Food Processors, Inc., 81 F.3d 507 (4th Cir. 1996).

<sup>2</sup> In reviewing the petition to revoke, we have considered the subpoena in light of the Region's clarification of the terms "any other document," "job announcement," "recruitment process" and "performance evaluation" as set forth in the Region's opposition brief.
